Media Monitoring Suite

TVEyes

Log In

Transcript

Log In

Log In

News 12 Bronx - New York, NY

05/08/2020 08:33:01 AM: ...offering services to those now without a job. news 12's alexa farrell spoke with the small business services to learn more. millions and millions of americans are facing the same challenge - the pandemic leaving them without a job. here in new york city, workers with the small business services are diligently working to provide necessary resources to new yorkers during this time. "we can help essentially connect you to employment but also prepare you for for working in this environment." jessica weis -- who is an assistant commissioner with the small business services -- broke down which services are available to new yorkers - free of charge right now "there is support with job searches reference to employment resume support in preparation for interviews. in addition, we're also helping folks. connect with unemployment insurance." so if you want to get back to work - the site helps you search through almost 4 thousand job listings. many of them in essential services like grocery stores and the medical field. "we can essentially connect you to employment but also prepare you for working in this environment" small business services also offers a virtual workshop that helps you find jobs based off of your experience and skills, as well as interview preparation and training. you've done our very best to stay ahead of as much information is possible and support new yorkers every step along the way. the first step to getting back to work is alexa, thank you. tonight at 7pm - norm champ - author of "mastering money: how to beat debt, build wealth, and be prepared for any financial crisis" and the former director of the division of investment management at the s-e-c, will join us via skype to answer your questions about the u.s. jobs report. so be sure ...